

POLICE LOST AND FOUND LIST SHOWS AMAZING VARIETY

A wife, two bicycles, a purse, four automobiles, a cow and a dog were listed at police headquarters under the heading of "lost and stolen" over the week end.

Losses in "personal" property have not been so great in months, police say. In a few instances, however, owners recovered their missing articles.

Loss of a wife was reported by F. J. Hanyton of the Hardwick hotel, Sunday evening. She later returned, never, having been with friends.

Charlie Stankard, 524 North Third street, lost a dark brown folding pocketbook containing two $50 bills. He sought the aid of the police in recovering his lost treasure.

Theft of a Willys-Knight automobile from in front of the postoffice was reported to the police department shortly before midnight Saturday night. It is the property of Howard Rule and carries Arizona license, No. 7214.

H. Kjerfchow, 1131 North Central avenue, reported the theft of his Buick machine, Arizona license, No. 5525, from in front of 144 North Second street late Saturday night. D. McElanahan of Tempe notified officers of the theft of his Ford car, Arizona license, No. 5651, from a parking space on First street, between Washington and Adams street. It was later recovered by Officer Papo at Ninth avenue and Grant street.

T. E. Irvine of the Sun Court apartments reported the theft of his Willys-Knight touring car. It was recovered later in the night.

An Emblem bicycle, belonging to A. R. Roman, 16 North Second street, was stolen from Second street and Washington. Herbert Wilson reported the theft of his bicycle from the corner of Central avenue and Washington.

Paul Snyder, 1025 East Pierce, reported the presence of a wrecked Ford car on the desert at the end of Park road. Police have been unable to locate the owner of the car.

Officer Linn reported a smashup at Five Points between cars owned by C. L. Rayburn and D. M. Morgan, Phoenix. One was a Dodge and the other a Nash.

BOWIE KNIFE AND GUN FEATURE RAID ON MESA GAMBLERS

MESA, Oct. 3.—A half dozen alleged Mexican gamblers, their cards, poker chips and other essentials necessary to the proper carrying on of the game, together with a gun and an eight inch Bowie knife, were taken at midnight Saturday in a raid made on a Mexican house in Verde Vista by Constable O. L. Pickens, assisted by Marshall Warren and Officers Brown and Shirk.

One other arrest for implication in the case was made Sunday afternoon when the gang will appear before Judge Newell for their preliminary hearing.

The roundup of gamblers netted the officers the biggest wholesale arrests made here in some months. After a visit to a trio of places within the city limits Saturday night which all proved fruitless, the officers followed up on a clue that gambling was going on in Verde Vista.

It was just after midnight that the raid was made and the entire party around the table were taken into custody. Ben Moreno, the alleged banker of the game, had $75 in his possession, which he parted with to the officers. From Jose Hernandez was removed the Bowie knife and from Antonio Monzone the gun. The remaining trio arrested Saturday night were Elvete Alvarez, Antonio Bracamonte and Jose Noelia. Valase, a seventh Mexican, was arrested Sunday, and the constable still has two more on his list that are supposed to have had a hand in the game.

The gamblers spent the balance of Saturday night in jail and are booked for their preliminary hearing before Judge Newell at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Brown Takes Shoplifter
Night Officer Brown arrested an alleged shoplifter at the Toggery Saturday night and the Mexican has been lodged in jail to await his preliminary hearing before Judge Newell, Monday. ### Grammar School Notes

The total enrollment is something more than $50 now, and the average daily attendance is running about 39 1/2 per cent, which not only shows that the attendance officer is busy, but that the parents are especially desirous of having their children in school every day.

The grades have reorganized so the different divisions are running from 25 to 30 in the first grades and the other grades from 30 to 40. All teachers are busy and most of the pupils doing good work, considering the warm weather.

The teachers' dining hall, which was erected during the summer, is proving a very valuable asset to the schools from the view point of having contented teachers. For the present school month of September the teachers are being charged $30 a month for board, and this is figuring so no expense is incurred by the district.

The rest of the supplies for the cafeteria arrived Monday and the cafeteria was opened Wednesday. Two hundred and twelve pupils and teachers took lunch Wednesday and 282 took lunch on Thursday. Perhaps the menu was being charged $30 a month for board, and this is figuring so no expense is incurred by the district.

The menu served on Tuesday consisted of the following: One ham sandwich, one jelly sandwich (both sandwiches buttered), one cookie, one apple, a cup of milk or ice water and a dish of scalloped corn. The menu served on Thursday was one peanut butter sandwich, one plain butter sandwich, one cookie, one apple, milk or water and a dish of creamed potatoes. The menu for Friday will consist of two sandwiches, one doughnut, with a small-sized hole in it; one apple, milk or water and a dish of baked beans.

There seems to be some misunderstanding concerning the teachers' dining hall and the cafeteria; that is, that it is an added expense to the district. Such, however, is not the case. The teachers are charged enough for their dining hall privileges to cover all expense involved, while in the cafeteria a straight charge of 15 cents per pupil covers expenses in nice shape with very little left over.

The teachers taking breakfast in the dining hall were privileged Wednesday morning to have Governor Campbell and four of his associates as their guests. They believe the governor, getting in on state occasions as he does, is a very competent judge of "good eats," and he expressed himself as heartily in favor of the idea which the board had put into effect in the erection of the teachers' dining hall and called attention to the fact that he wanted those at his table to notice that he was whole heartedly co-operating with the cook by disposing of her food apples, lemon, eggs and biscuits. He made a few remarks at the close of the breakfast in which he stated that he was glad to know that the Glendale teachers were living up to the duties of their profession and giving the Glendale boys and girls some good, sound, practical information.

Wednesday evening the teachers journeyed to the desert, taking the dining room force with them, and all enjoyed a picnic supper on the desert. After all the eats had been disposed of, except a few weiners, a free-for-all was indulged in and the ice in the cream freezers and some of the straws weiners found their way down various individual backs. Taking it all together, a very delightful evening was spent and the teachers voted that a similar stunt would be indulged in with each full moon.

The medical examination of the pupils has been completed and the notices of defects will be sent to the parents within the next few days. The physical condition of the children is considerably improved over that of last year, and it is felt the medical inspection and the work of the nurses is of considerable benefit to the schools.

Athletics for the boys will be started within the next few days. Mr. Imes taking charge of the inter-school athletic work and Mr. Merrifield and Mr. McCruer taking charge of the scrubs. Basketball will be the game for the while and later in the spring the schools will take up baseball. The boys are planning to "clean up" the grammar schools of the valley in athletics.

A New Invention in Cotton Gins

The Roller Cotton Gin Company

Wiley W. Conway of Prescott, Ariz., has invented and patented a new Roller Cotton Gin without knives or saws to cut and break the fiber as the present machines now in use do.

His machine saves the fiber just as nature grew it; gins both long and short staple cotton, increasing the value of short staple cotton from $25.00 to $35.00 per bale over the saw machine and a substantial increase on the long staple fiber with the Conway Cotton Gin. The ginner will be able to handle the cotton crop just as the farmer gathers it, eliminating a congestion at the gin. Also the ginner will be in a position to cut the present ginning price half in two, and give the farmer a more valuable staple of cotton which means a better price.

We have a company incorporated under the laws of Arizona, called Roller Cotton Gin company, capitalized for ($250,000), divided into 250,000 shares at $1.00 par value. We have a working model which actually gins cotton and will demonstrate it at the Palmer real estate office, 10 North Second Ave., beginning Monday, Oct. 4th. Demonstration hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. each day. Everyone invited to come and see it. Our phone number is 4405. Call us up and we will tell you all about it.

WILEY W. CONWAY, President.

He was 13 years of age.

During last year he attended the Monroe school, and would have been a pupil there this year if his illness had not set in. She said she secured a position as a nurse in the county tubercular hospital to support herself. She was granted the decree by Judge Lyman.

When she returned home later, she said, she found that her husband had sold all their furniture and moved. She introduced a letter from another
